

THE LORD IS MY LIGHT AND MY SALVATION:

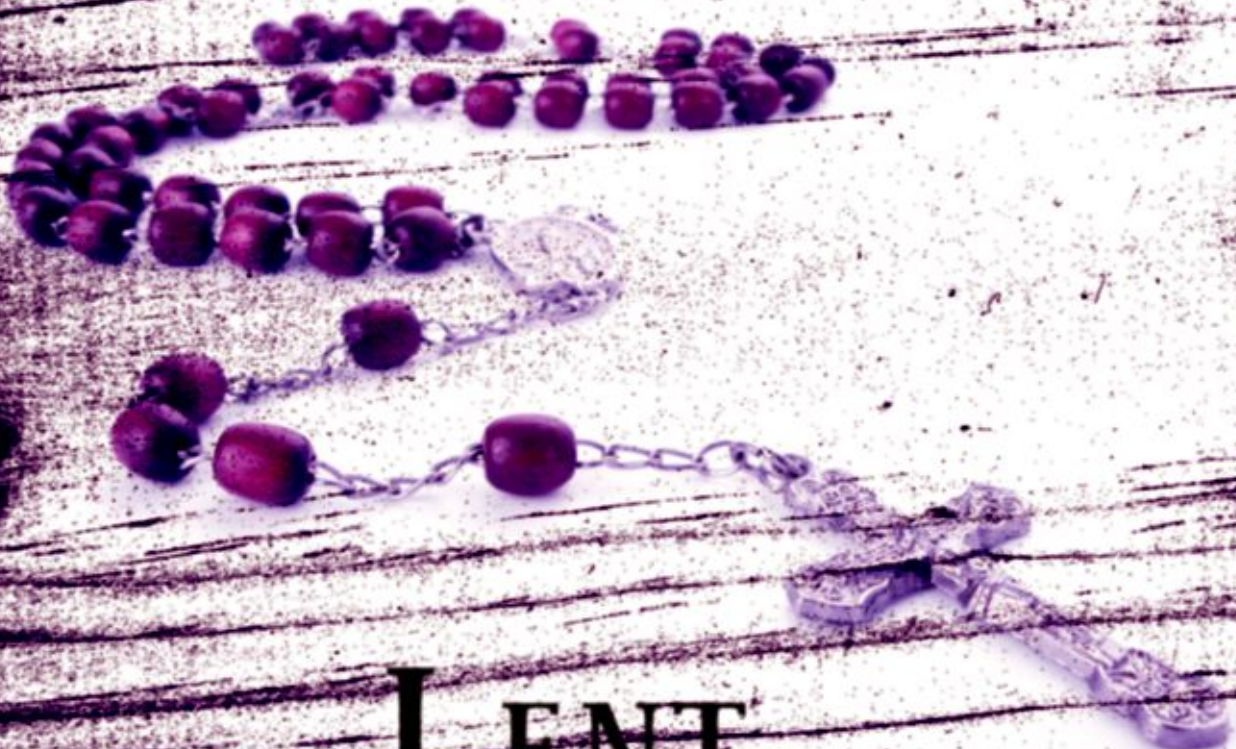

WHOM DO I FEAR?

THE LORD IS MY LIFE'S REFUGE:

OF WHOM AM I AFRAID?

PSALM 27:1

LENT

Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18
Philippians 3:17-4:1
Luke 9:28b-36

“How good it is for us to be here,” says Peter on the mountain of the Transfiguration. It is good for us to be here, and yet, though we are often in the presence of the risen Lord – in the Eucharist, in the scriptures, in the assembly of two or more in his name – we do not always obey the voice from the cloud and “Listen to him.” One of the most truly annoying things that can occur is to be with someone who is not with you. The realization that one has been speaking for some time to someone whose thoughts are elsewhere can be terribly frustrating. Have we been a potential source of frustration to the Lord? One of the blessings of stewardship is that it focuses our attention. If we are concerned about making the best use of time, talent and treasure to please the Lord we are likely to be listening. Our stewardship transfigures our discipleship.

From the desk of Fr. Ken

Today's Gospel is The Transfiguration. Jesus took Peter, James and John up on the Mount and was transfigured in front of their eyes by showing them this radiant glory. Peter wanted to stay up there, Jesus said otherwise, for He had to come back down from this Mount in order to climb another Mount. The Mount of Calvary. The Crown of Glory could not happen without the cross. No cross, no crown. Jesus couldn't have the latter without the former. By the way, neither can we.

2013 Catholic Ministries Appeal

This weekend we will be listening to an audio message from Archbishop Schnurr explaining how our support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal is part of our commitment to our faith, and asking every Catholic household to make a pledge. Thanks to all from St. Mary, Hyde Park who contributed to the 2012 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Please know that your participation is vital to reaching our parish goal.

Worship 101

“Why do we have Reconciliation Services during Lent?”

During Lent most parishes offer extra times when the Sacrament of Reconciliation can be celebrated. Many parishes include in that schedule a communal reconciliation service which includes individual celebration of the sacrament. Part of the intent of the communal celebration is to acknowledge the communal effect of sin, and our need to be reconciled with one another. This is an opportunity to affirm our interdependence as we prepare for Easter. Such services help facilitate the Church's requirement for the sacrament of reconciliation: that “after having attained the age of discretion, each of the faithful is bound by an obligation faithfully to confess serious sins at least once a year.” Additionally, anyone who is aware of having committed a mortal sin must not receive Holy Communion until having gone to confession.

Do you have a question you want answered? Send your questions to connieerdmann555@hotmail.com or call the parish office (321-1207). You may even drop them in the collection basket. We look forward to hearing them.

FROM OUR SCHOOL OFFICE

SMS Students have been traveling abroad and hosting international students over the past few weeks. Eight students and a teacher chaperone returned from Mexico City on Feb. 16 and we immediately welcomed eight students and teacher chaperone from the same school visited, Instituto Educativo Olinca. An assembly will take place this Thursday, Feb. 28 for us to formally bid our guests a fond farewell and provide them an opportunity to share their culture through song and dance.

Two groups of 8th grade students and their chaperones have passed in the airport coming and going for their study at Morgan's Educational Lodge on the Osa Peninsula of Costa Rica. The Osa Peninsula is home to the largest Pacific rain forest and the most important biological preserve in the Americas.

Please visit us at www.sms.shp.com to learn more, view pictures of the life at SMS, and also to follow a blog of our 8th grade Costa Rica travelers!

A few Kindergarten openings are still available for the 2013-2014 school year...we would be delighted to give you a personal tour of the school...please call the school office at (321-0703).

A Prayer to Avoid Entitlement

by Richard Rohr

The Jewish people have a beautiful prayer form, a kind of litany to which the response is always "Dayenu!" (It would have been enough!).

They list, one by one, the mirabilia Dei, the wonderful works of God for their people and themselves, and after each one, shout out DAYENU! As if to say, "How much is it going to take for us to know that God is with us?!" It builds satisfaction instead of feeding dissatisfaction.

If we begin our day with any notion of scarcity, not-enoughness, victimhood, or "I deserve," I promise you the day will not be good--for you or for those around you. Nor will God be glorified.

Maybe we all should begin our days with a litany of satisfaction, abundance, and enoughness. God, you have given me another day of totally gratuitous life: my health, my eyes, my ears, my mind, my taste, my family, my freedom, my education, clean water, more than enough food, a roof over my head, a warm bed and blanket, friends, sunshine, a beating heart, and your eternal love and guidance.

To any one of these we must say, "And this is more than enough!"

(Adapted from a post to Fr. Richard's blog, Unpacking Paradoxes, on January 30, 2012)
